INSURANCE AWARENESS

"An individual is exposed to various risks in daily life and it will surprise one to note how many of these can actually be insured. Life insurance and general insurance companies offer a variety of products covering different types of risks. Not only is there a dearth of knowledge about these but also most individuals are not aware of the value that insurance, as an option, could add to their lives. While affordability and the place of insurance in the list of an individual's priority in this context are important questions, quite a few are uninsured purely due to lack of awareness about insurance as a protection tool and details about the types of insurances that are possible"
