Time: 01 Hour

1. Reading Comprehension – (Unseen Passage)

My parents were widely regarded as an ideal couple. My mother's lineage was the more distinguished, one of her forebears having been bestowed the title of 'Bahadur' by the British. I was one of many children—a short boy with rather undistinguished looks, born to tall and handsome parents; We lived in our ancestral house, which was built in the middle of the 19th century. It was a fairly large pucca house, made of lime stone and brick, on the Mosque street in Rameshwaram. My austere father used to avoid all inessential comforts and luxuries. However, all necessities were provided for, in terms of food, medicine or clothes. In fact, I would say mine a very secure childhood, both materially and emotionally. I normally ate with my mother, sitting on the floor of the kitchen. She would place a banana leaf before me on which she then ladled rice and aromatic sambhar, a variety of sharp, homemade pickles and a dollop of fresh coconut chutney.
