

Remedial Classes

Introduction

Remedial Classes

Remedial classes are supposed to improve students specifically that they haven't done well in. The term is most often used to describe courses given to students who are not prepared for regular work. College students often have to take remedial classes before they can begin actual university level examination specially those who are from different streams to understand basics of subjects which they are not aware of and create study habits.

Characteristics of learning among students with learning difficulties

Students under IPTP (Intensive Remedial teaching Programme) have one or more than one of the following learning difficulties:

- Poor Memory
- Short attention span and are easily distracted by other things
- Relatively Poor comprehensive power
- Lack of learning Motivation
- Lack of self confidence and relatively low self expectation
- Weak in Solving power
- Fail to grasp information effectively and mix things up easily
- Have difficulty in understanding new concept
- Need more time to complete assignments or tasks

Objectives of Remedial Teaching

- Each student is difficult in terms of learning ability, academics standards, classroom learning and academic performance and each one has his own capability in learning. The aim of remedial classes is adapting college curriculum and teaching strategies, teachers can provide learning activities and practical experiences to students according to their abilities and needs.

- Throughout the teaching process, teaching should provide systematic training to develop students generic skills, including interpersonal relationship, communication problem solving, self-learning, Independent thinking, Creativity and the use of information technology

Principles of helping students with learning difficulties

- Teaching Preparation
- Device various learning activities
- Design Meaningful Learning Situation
- Teaching approaches
- Provide clear instruction
- Summarize the main points
- Enhance the learning interest and motivation
- Encourage students for active Participation
- Focus on Learning process
- Show concern for the performances of Individual Students

Conclusion and implementation

The effects of college remediation on accumulation, persistence and graduation are of great interest to college administration, policy-makers and students. Students who took the remedial writing courses also received higher grades in their college level writing courses also received higher grades in their college level writing courses and helpful in preparing students for examinations.
