SEMINAR REPORT

A one day national seminar on "IPR awareness and induction of new projects in entrepreneurship development programme" by the cell on 25/01/2020. The main agenda of the seminar was to enlighten participants about intellectual property rights and motivate students for innovative idea development. The keynote speaker were Dr. Aaditya Gautam, Director, SRC and Dr. Vinit Kumar Sharma, Dean (Academics), SRC. The workshop was started with lamp lightning by Dr. Alok Gupta, Director, SRGC; Dr. Perna Mittal, Dr. Aditya Gautam, Mr. Manish Jain, Secretary, IIA-Muzaffarnagar. and Dr. Sourabh Jain, co-ordinator, IPR&ED Cell.

After lamp lightning, Dr. Roupal Malik, Member, IPR & ED cell welcomed all the guests and participants and further briefly explained the working and functioning of cell. After that, Dr. Aaditya Gautam threw light on working and process of intellectual property rights. His keynote address highlighted various stigmas and question surrounding the issue. Also, he explain the type os IPR such as patent, trademark, copyrights and trade secrets. Dr. Vinit Kumar sharma on the other hand, in his address highlighted the importance of entrepreneurship and how to create and develop the required skills and environment for the same.

After the keynote address, team members involved in new projects under incubation support undertaken by cell namely Vermicompost and Gaushala development presented their ideas and zeal to start a new venture.

Lastly, Dr. Sourabh Jain congratulated the speakers and participants and motivated students to develop entrepreneurship through small projects/innovative ideas with the help of cell.

The workshop ended with distribuion of mementoes and certificates to the students. In total, 44 participants attended the workshop.
