REPORT OF WORKSHOP

"Goods And Services Tax"

An interactive session on 'Goods and Service Tax' was conducted on 28.11.2019 in SRC Auditorium. The session was attended by 134 students from Commerce Department. The motive of the session was to discuss about conceptual procedures of Goods and Service Tax.

CA Sanjay Jain, an eminent chartered Accountant of the region was the chief guest of the workshop and CA Neelam Jain , an eminent chartered Accountant was the Guest of Honour of the workshop. As Goods and Service Tax was launched on 01-07-2017 with a motive of One Nation One Tax. So it is the right time to have a workshop on this topic so that the youth may know about the tax structure of the country.

During the workshop 134 students presented their papers and some of the faculties of the department also shared their views about GST among the students.

Students shared their views in a significant manner and highlight the following: GST is a big step to lead India into a more transparent and corruption-free taxation system. India required a better tax improvement on indirect tax like GST. GST puts India to a better place to accommodate in the international market. Also, by inducing Small and Medium Enterprises (SMEs) and another organized sector, under it, GST heads to a more enduring Indian Industrial area and an enriched economy.
