Report one day Workshop on titled
“Research Methodology - Use of ICT in Research”

Organised By
Faculty Of Teacher Education,
Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar

Date-20/08/2016

Background

Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar is mandated to nurture an environment of innovation and creativity among the stakeholders, namely the teachers, academics, staff and the research scholars. One of the objectives of Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar is to provide intellectual and technological support to stakeholders for the growth and development of the ICT. A wide range of technological tools and resources are now available which can be of immense benefit to the research scholars in communication, interaction, course design, course delivery and providing enhanced web support through the programme or course. Keeping in view the above, Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar, organized a one-day training workshop for the stakeholders, namely the teachers, academics, staff and the research scholars on “Use of ICT In Research ” on August 20,2016 & April, at the auditorium , Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar. The main focus of the workshop was on providing exposure and hands on training on various ICT tools which the stakeholders can then use in their research and academic support for the benefit of the learners.

Objectives

Keeping in view the above, the Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar, the main objectives of the workshops were:

Co-ordinator
IQAC, Shri Ram College,

Principal
Shri Ram College
Muzaffarnagar

- i) to provide exposure to the stakeholders, namely the teachers, academics, staff and the research scholars on various freely available ICT tools which they may use in research and web based academic support; and
- ii) to provide hands on training to the stakeholders about creative use of such technological tools for providing innovative learning solutions.

Methodology

The methodology of the workshop is as follows:

1. Duration of the workshop: The workshop was of short duration of one-day. This is in keeping with the time constraints of the stakeholders, namely the teachers, academicians, staff and the research scholars.
2. Participants: The participants are the teachers, academicians, staff and the research scholars included the faculties of Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar. In order to give full focus on hands on practice, a limited number of participants were selected based on first come first served basis. The emphasis will be on retaining the same group of participants throughout the year.
3. Resource Persons: The workshop was more hands-on practice oriented. The resource persons for the workshops were Dr Arif, Associate Professor, Govt. Degree College, Deoband and Dr. Sunita Sharma, Associate Professor, D.A.V. College, Muzaffarnagar..
4. Mode: The workshop was conducted in face to face mode and with follow up discussions .
5. Programme Schedule: The programme schedule of the workshop is provided at Annexure I.
6. Date: The workshop was held on August 20, 2016.
7. Venue: The workshop was organized in the auditorium, Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar.

Workshop Coordinators

The workshop was coordinated by

- Dr. Perna Mittal, Dean, Faculty Of Education
- Dr. Dinesh Singh, Head Of Department, Faculty Of Teacher Education.

Expected Outcomes

The workshop was expected to provide to the participants a platform for providing hands on training on various available latest ICT tools for innovative research and support solutions. It was expected to empower the stakeholders to use these tools in their research and practices. The emphasis was to enable exploring the possible use of the available ICT tools innovatively, which will further facilitate in overcoming key challenges when designing and implementing change in the research.

The Workshop Sessions

Dr. B.K. Tyagi, Executive Director, Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar said that a large number of tools are available which can be used by the research scholars to provide support in research. He mentioned that Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar is aiming to conduct such activities and facilitate the stakeholders in utilising these tools innovatively. Dr. Perna Mittal, coordinator of the workshop mentioned that the wide range of available technological tools and resources can be of immense benefit to the stakeholders through enhanced web support through the programme or course. Dr. Dinesh Singh, co-coordinator of the workshop highlighted how these tools could be used to provide support to the research scholars easily.

Participants from various institutions participated in the training workshop. The participants ideated on providing creative and innovative solutions to the learners of their programme. They learnt about the freely available apps and how these apps can be used for providing research support to the research scholars.

The main focus of the workshop was on providing hands on training to the stakeholders, namely the teachers, academicians, staff and the research scholars about the creative use of freely available tools for providing innovative learning solutions. These tools can be used to supplement the counselling by the faculty, particularly in low enrolment programmes. The workshop was a huge success among the stakeholders and they enjoyed the hands-on sessions and gave the feedback that more such workshops are required to facilitate the stakeholders.

Conclusion

This workshop was a unique effort by the Shri Ram College, Muzaffarnagar towards the capacity development of the stakeholders, namely the teachers, academicians, staff and the research scholars with the objective to provide intellectual and technological support to them thus enriching the research methodology. The workshop in a duration of one day was focused on providing training on a technological tool with hands on training. As indicated by the feedback of the participants the workshop was well received and appreciated by the participants, who also requested for more such workshops in future also. The participants learned about the technological tools available which can be used in research.
