Day 1:

Inauguration

The workshop was inaugurated with lamp lighting by the auspicious hands of chief guest Dr. S.C.Kulshrestha, Chairman Shri Ram Group of Colleges and Dr. Perna Mittal introduced the guest. Executive Director felicitates the dignitaries on dais. Principal Dr. R.S.Chauhan gave the welcome and inaugural speech and emphasized that more focus required for the development of Soft Skills/ communication skills and for that such programs are essential. He stated that 'soft skill training' is the need of present era for the faculty and students. He also remarked that along with soft skills one must have good communication skills too. He concluded with a suggestion that the training workshop on communication skills for faculty also needs to be organized.

Dr. B.K.Tyagi said that during the starting of this college his aim is not only developing employers for the Industries but to develop good human beings who will ideals in society & others. Also he shows more faith on the faculty because they are the fountain head of morality in society by looking good no of participation. Then the chief guest delivered his keynote address. He dealt with every aspect of soft skills from corporate to personal and from work place to health. He explained in details the different between soft & hard skills, importance of it in teaching field and how we can acquire it. Finally, he provided real life examples of soft skills which proved his saying:

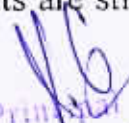

"More doors are opened with 'please' than with keys"

Dr Perna Mittal, Coordinator of workshop proposed vote of thanks of the inaugural session.

SESSION 3: Personality Development & SWOC Analysis of a Personality

In this session, Dr J.P Savita, professor of English from S.D. degree college, focused on major aspects a personality that are currently being valued by the educationalists in the light of emerging engineers & industrialists. First he had a view of every participant about ideal personality, noted it on the board and explained all aspects of a good person. He also revealed a method of SWOC analysis of a personality. The session was fully interactive and impressive that his thoughts are still floating in my mind while writing this report.

Day 2:

SESSION 1: Panel Discussion

Panel discussion was conducted by Dr Roupal Malik & Dr Ravi Gautam, in which all participants expressed their views about earlier speakers and enriched their learning about soft skills. In fact, it was a training kind of session for faculty.

SESSION 02: How to overcome the fear of public speaking

The two sessions of Dr. M.L.Gupta were very much motivating & full of guidance for the participants because he explained his journey from a coward public speaker to free lance soft skills trainer. He revealed seven reason of being a coward public speaker & also explained methods to overcome it. One of them is 'kill the fear first' which he experimented on each participant and Dr Vikas agarwal case found very interesting to him because he knows four languages being a Mathematics teacher and when he speaks English in public he has fear while other languages are fearless to him. He said we have two options first FEAR = Face Everything and Rise & second FEAR = Fear Everything and Run.

SESSION 3: How to speak fluent English without using boring grammar

He said English a very easy language to learn, in fact, we have made it difficult. He says that we can learn any new language at any stage of life. For that we must not start with grammar but with LSRW = Listen, Speak, Read & Write. He remarks a child learns its mother tongue by imitation only and not by the study of grammar. So he advised to fallow this natural method learning any language.

Day 3:

SESSION 1: This session was Group discussion

SESSION 2: Review of the discussion and highlight the points

SESSION 3: Ms Sugandh Gupta discussed about the solution for the common problems

Day 4:

SESSION 1: Public speaking activity

This session was fully dedicated to public speaking activity. Faculty was informed to talk at least for five minutes on the stage on any topic like best moment of their life, turning point of their life, what makes them different from others & so on. After performance of every participant, they were asked to share their experience of public speaking. Few of them said even though same stage is there where they deliver lectures to students this time they faced some problems. Then faculty of Professional Communication explained the reasons of it to them and main reason is they felt fear & they are not used to public speaking activity.

SESSION 2: English for Classroom Discourse

In this session, Mr Ravi Rutela, PDP trainer, dealt in details with classroom discourse in English. He combined discourse with teaching and learning activity that goes on in a classroom. He said that even though teaching & learning activity is student centered but main controller of this activity is teacher always. So he must be fluent in discourse management which is the centre of all these activities. He introduced various discourses & informed how to conduct it. His efforts were to teach us each and every discourse that will be helpful to faculty to conduct smooth classroom discourse to provide better learning. Actually, it was very nice session & thought us a lot.

SESSION 3: Developing interpersonal relationship

This session, she started with psychological & reasoning tests & went on explaining its decisive role in developing interpersonal relationship. She says that to develop healthy interpersonal relations, one must help others, listen them, trust, communicate, take care, be good critic & don't be too much practical. Lastly, she conducted a group activity in which she assigned us to enlist five good and bad points of our institutes.

Day 5

SESSION 1: Presentation of soft skills of all participants

In this session, every faculty advised to present their view about good and bad relations they had gone through. After exchanging the views of each other, we gained huge knowledge of relationships and also came to know what goes wrong the relations that turns good bond into worst one.

SESSION 02: Introduction to Phonetics

First session of Dr.B.S.Tyagi, he tried to introduce what is phonetics and phonology?

He said that we must study phonetics first and phonology later. He deals 44 sounds of phonetics divided into three groups: vowels, diphthongs & consonants. He introduced us with all 44 sounds, how to pronounce them & place of articulation as well. Then he took drilling of few sounds which are basically difficult to Indian people to produce them correctly. This session was very much enjoyed by faculty due to drilling activity.

SESSION 03: The Phonetics

In second session, he fully introduced phonetics to us. He taught us manner of articulation, how to turn your articulatory system while the production of a word then he went on teaching accentual shape of words.

Day 6

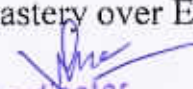

SESSION 01: Some videos about soft skills shown to participants In this session, we tried to provide visual training of soft skill with the help of videos.

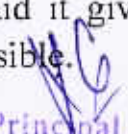

SESSION 02: The Stress

In this session, he dealt with stress of English language. Stress means the particular emphasis given on a syllable of a word. To make it clear he provided examples from, Hindi & Sanskrit languages. He says that there are two types of stress, first word stress & sentence stress. However he said that sentence stress is known as intonation. He introduced mono-, bi-, tri- & polysyllabic word stress with the stress change due to category of word from its function in a sentence. He remarked that knowledge of stress is essential for rich pronunciation of English. Those acquire it get upper hand in every move of their professional career. So he advised us to learn to for better career ahead

SESSION 03: The Intonation

Intonation means sentence stress but change of stress is possible from one word to another according to importance of the meaning that you want to convey your listener. Intonation is the richness of English language. He said it gives you the mastery over English language. Make it your asset as early as possible.
