Report on Handicrafts Exhibition
Organized by Maa Shakumbari University

Maa Shakumbari University successfully organized an Exhibition to Promote Handicrafts on 4th April 2025 at the university campus. The event was held under the theme "Promotion of Handicrafts and Artisan Work", with the aim of encouraging students to showcase their creativity through both traditional and contemporary handicraft forms.

Professor Vimala Y, Vice Chancellor, and Cabinet Minister Dr. Seema Jain, Principal of Jain Kanya PG College, Muzaffarnagar, inaugurated the exhibition as the chief guests. They visited each stall, appreciated the artists' work, and encouraged them with their kind words. The exhibition attracted enthusiastic participation from students across various departments, who displayed a wide range of handmade items including:

- Embroidered textiles
- Terracotta and clay work
- Hand-painted artifacts
- Recycled material crafts
- Beadwork and jewelry
- Paper craft and decorative items

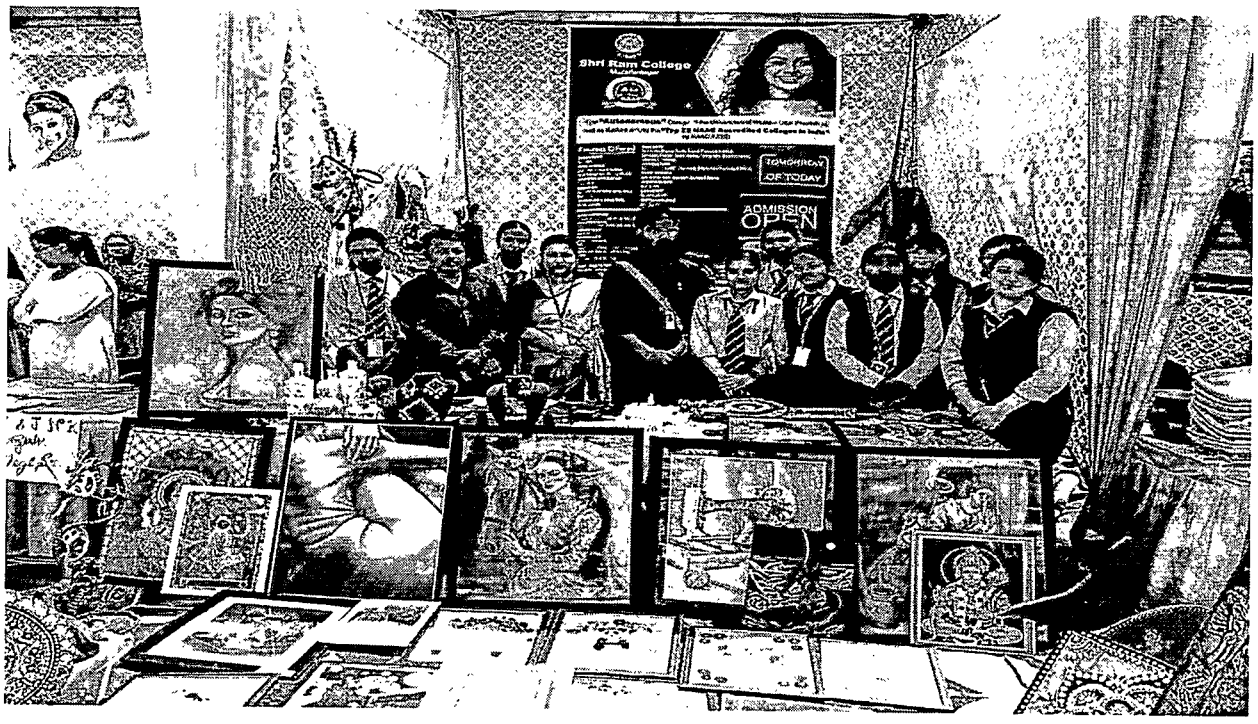

The event was coordinated by Mr. Mayank Saini, Mr. Ajit Mana and Soni srivastava who ensured smooth execution and guided students in the setup and display of their work. The exhibition served as a platform for young artisans to present their skills and gain recognition for their craftsmanship.

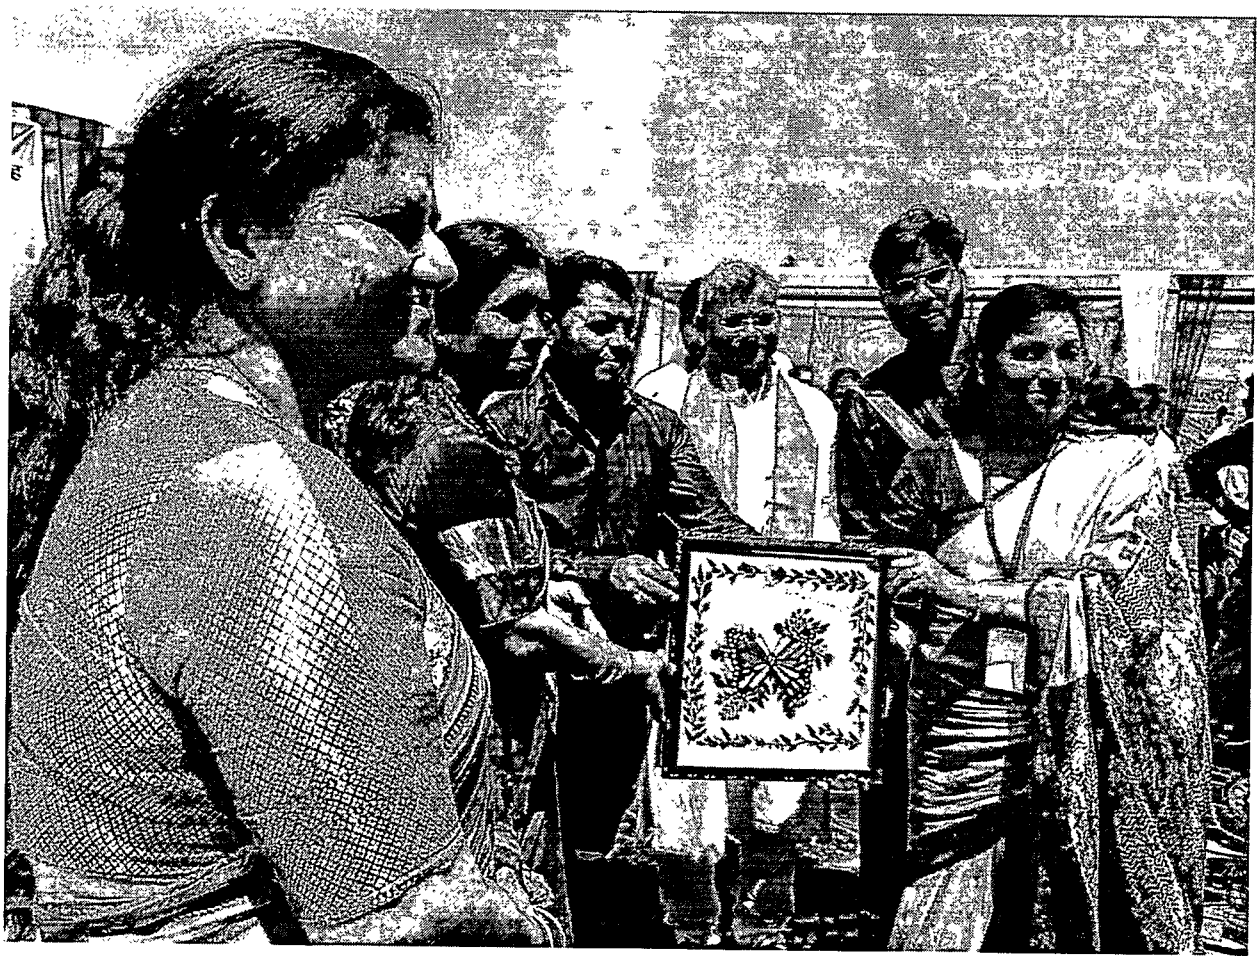

Visitors, including faculty members, students, and guests, praised the diversity, creativity, and cultural richness reflected in the exhibits. The event also emphasized the importance of preserving traditional crafts while embracing eco-friendly and innovative design approaches. The exhibition successfully achieved its goal of promoting handmade art and cultural heritage, inspiring students to value and contribute to India's vibrant artisan legacy.
